COMPREHENSIVE SEARCH

→ Economic databases at a click

Books, articles or electronic full-texts

EconBiz contains more than nine million datasets from big international databases for business and economics. You can limit your search to free texts or find a library near you that has a specific book.

Too complicated? Ask us. How? Use our online Research Guide EconDesk. Next to the results list.

Events

In EconBiz you can also search specifically for events and conferences in particular fields.

Follow our event tweets at: <https://twitter.com/econbiz> or check out our visual search for events at: <http://www.econbiz.de/eb/en/beta/visual-event-search/> (Beta)

“With the EconBiz app I get fast and reliable access to economic literature, whether I am in Milan, London or Hamburg.”

Mattia Montagna, PhD candidate in Quantitative Economics, Kiel Institute for the World Economy (IfW), Germany

SIMPLIFY YOUR WORK

→ The fast lane to results

Precise results

With EconBiz you can add filters to your search request step-by-step and narrow down your results. For instance by topic, year, language or document type.

“As an economist I expect other things from a search engine than users who simply google for their private needs. I require reliable and first-rate information, such as statistics or articles, and I need them quickly. EconBiz gives me quick results – and access to the publication I want.”

Dr Nadine Heitmann, head of division, Centre for European Policy (cep), Germany
